

To the candidates for office: Come in; the water's fine!

And now they are beginning to refer to the "reactionary" element of the Nebraska Democracy.

By an oversight of the linotype operator, the credit was omitted from the Eldred interview published last week Thursday. The article was copied from the Lincoln News.

It is a sore trial to our Holdrege friends of the pen, paste and scissors cult to see other towns accepting defeat with complacent fortitude. We are thinking just as hard, brethren. We are simply inarticulate.

Culbertson has organized a commercial club with W. Z. Taylor as president; J. H. Corrick, secretary; G. G. Eisenhart, treasurer; G. G. Eisenhart, J. A. Kirk, Henry Hein, Henry Klevin, August Hagge, Joseph Haessler, C. G. Crews, C. Wacker, and W. V. Harvey as executive committee.

The Rev. Charles F. Aked recently said in an address in San Francisco: "I challenge you (the men) to name a time and a country where the franchise has been extended to a previously unfranchised class who at time of their enfranchisement were as capable of exercising the franchise as the American woman is today."

Cannot Attach Postal Savings.

Akron, O., June 13.—Deposits made in the United States postal savings banks cannot be attached by creditors in any state in the union according to Postoffice Inspector George Pate, who today completed his first inspection of the bank opened at Barberton, Ohio.

Absolute secrecy must be maintained as to the identity of the depositors and courts are helpless in any attempt to force postmasters to produce their records.

Some More Filings.

Since our last report the following filings have been made with the county clerk:

Charles K. Dutcher for county clerk on the Democratic ticket.

Miss Anna McDonald for county superintendent on Democratic ticket.

Wm. J. Stillebough for county commissioner on the Republican ticket.

On a hot day you will find our store the coolest place in town. Delicious ice cream and cold drinks served at all hours. Come see us and get cooled off.

D. OF H. CONVENTION CLOSED.

Ruth Ewan of Orleans Chosen District Superintendent.

Indianola, Neb., June 13.—The fifth district convention Degree of Honor composing the Fifth congressional district, closed a successful session here tonight. All counties in the district were represented with 137 delegates registered. Mrs. Mayme Cleaver, grand chief of honor; Mrs. Augusta Anton, grand lady of honor, and Mrs. A. E. Grossman, grand outside watch, were present. Team drill was given on a platform in the street, McCook, Cambridge and Edison participating. A prize of $5—offered by the grand lodge was won by Edison today. Receipts of convention more than paid expenses. Mrs. C. J. Sintir, past chief of honor, of Indianola presided over the convention. Orleans was selected as the place to hold the next convention. Officers for this year are: Ruth Ewan, Orleans, district superintendent; Mrs. Papoon, Orleans, district secretary; Mrs. Augusta Anton, McCook, district treasurer. A public meeting and refreshments were given at the Masonic temple last night. The Cambridge team exemplified the work by initiating six candidates.—Lincoln Journal.
